“Whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.”
Matthew 16:19

THE ROCK

Peter was Jesus’ choice to lead the fragile band of apostles. In today’s Gospel, Simon is given a new name—Peter, the “rock.” In John’s Gospel, Peter is called to be a shepherd. He is expected to lay down his life for his sheep. And tradition tells us that he did just that. But today we think about the durable rocklike quality that Jesus needed in a leader.

Peter was appointed to his leadership position for reasons we are not able to fathom. God knows, and Jesus knew well, that Peter was flawed. We cannot mistake his enthusiasms, though, his manifest love, and his great, exuberant faith. Those virtues saw him through. They are durable, tough, beautiful virtues. They make Peter a sympathetic and lovable person. They provide us with the balance and humor that we need as we consider our own roles in the universal church.

Is the Church Always Right?

At the Last Supper, Jesus promised his disciples he would send the Holy Spirit to guide them “to all truth” (Jn 16:13). “The Advocate, the holy Spirit that the Father will send in my name—he will teach you everything and remind you of all that I told you” (John 14:26). The Apostles handed on their authority and mission to their successors, -- the pope and the bishops. Together, they are responsible for “giving an authentic interpretation of the Word of God”. The whole Church, because it is under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, cannot err in matters of faith and morals.

Also, “The whole body of the faithful...cannot err in matters of belief. This characteristic is shown in the supernatural appreciation of faith (sensus fidei) on the part of the whole people.” That means that individual members may make mistakes, sometimes publicly. Then, the Church must clarify “what has always and everywhere been believed by all.”
God bless you.

Mark Your Calendar: Our parish of Holy Angels celebrates its “100th Foundation Anniversary” this year. Among others, there will be a Centennial Dinner in the Parish Hall on Saturday, September 27th at $50 per person. Dinner tickets and Centennial Shirts are available at the rectory during office hours. Its highlight will be a Mass of Thanksgiving on Sunday, October 5th at 1:00 pm with Bishop Robert McElroy as the main celebrant.

For the Celebration of the Holy Angels Centennial, we would like to offer “100 Good Deeds” to the Lord for blessing us with “100 Years of our Parish Community”. If you would like to donate a $25 gift card from Safeway or Target, please pick up a card on the “Tree of Life” located at the front entrance of the church and return it to the rectory.

Are you someone considering being Baptized into the Catholic Church? Or, are you already baptized but have not received your 1st Communion or Confirmation? If you are, come join us in the R.C.I.A. program and we will prepare you for Baptism, 1st Communion, or Confirmation. R.C.I.A., stands for “Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults”. We meet once-a-week at the parish hall on Tuesday evenings from 7:00 to 8:30 p.m. We are still accepting candidates throughout the month of August. You may sign-up at the Tuesday Sessions.

Missionary Appeal Today

Today we have a visiting diocesan priest from the Society of Saint

James, Fr. Daniel O’Sullivan who will give us some insight into the state of the missions in South America. The Society, founded by Cardinal Cushing in 1958, has members serving in Peru and Ecuador. Each year a few of the members come north to spread the word about their missionary work and to appeal for donations. Please be as generous as your means allow. For more information on the Society of St. James visit their website: www.socstjames.com

It’s Raffle Time again!!

Your Holy Angels raffle tickets will be available to be picked up after all of the Masses this weekend. By picking up the tickets, rather than having us mail them to you, will save us hundreds of dollars in postage. Those that are not picked up will be mailed. This is our main fundraiser of the year and your support is truly appreciated. The money raised from our raffle helps us to make improvements and maintain our buildings. Extra books of tickets will also be available in our rectory office.

LA ROCA

Jesús escogió a Pedro para ser el jefe del inseguro grupo de Apóstoles. En el Evangelio de hoy, el que una vez se llamaba Simón es ahora Pedro –la roca. En el Evangelio de Juan, Pedro es llamado a ser pastor. Eso requiere que esté dispuesto a dar su vida por sus ovejas. Y la tradición nos dice que él hizo eso exactamente. Pero hoy, pensamos en las cualidades inmovibles de las rocas que Jesús necesitaba en un jefe.

Pedro se ganó su posición de liderazgo por razones que no nos podemos imaginar. Dios sabe, y Jesús también, que Pedro tenía sus fallas. No podemos dejar de ver su entusiasmo, ni su gran amor y fe espontánea. Esas virtudes le sirvieron bien. Son virtudes admirables, duraderas y fuertes. Hacen que Pedro sea simpático y fácil de querer. Nos proporcionan el balance y el buen humor necesarios al considerar nuestros papeles y miembros de la Iglesia universal de nuestro tiempo.
